

True Love— Forever Love

—A message from Jesus

I know everything about you, and I still love you! I will always love you!

I know your heartaches and the pain that you suffer. I know what you worry about. I know your secret dreams and aspirations. I know what has disappointed you in the past, and I know your fears about the future.

I know your insecurities and the times that you compare yourself negatively with others. I understand the times when you don't measure up to everything you would like to be, and the times that you do or say things that you later regret. I even know the things that you try to hide from everyone—including yourself.

Sometimes you feel so alone, and your existence seems so pointless. You ask yourself, "What am I here for? What is the purpose for my life? Is there a God? And if so, where is He? Who is He?"

I understand your uncertainty, your heaviness, your frustration. If you come to Me, you can pass from a life of emptiness, disappointment, turmoil, or desperation into a life of peace and love.

I love you with a love that is perfect and without end. I love you as no one else has ever loved you before, and as no one else ever will. There is nothing you can do that would cause Me to turn My back on you. The only thing that could come between you and My love would be your refusal to receive it.

If you'll just reach out to Me and invite Me into your life, you will find the love that I have promised you. As a father loves his only child, so will I love you and care for you. I will never forget you or leave you.

I have tenderly watched you from the moment that you were conceived. I have seen all your ups and downs, your successes and your failures, the times you rejoiced and the times you wept. I have known you intimately all these years, and I have been waiting for this moment when we would finally meet heart to heart.

I love you as if you were the only one. You're not lost in a faceless crowd called humanity. You're not just one of the billions—you are special and unique to Me. I know and love you as an individual. I died on the cross for you personally, so that you could experience My love and forgiveness today and always.

Jesus wants to enter into a personal relationship with you and become a very real part of your life both here and now and forever in eternity. He stands at your heart's door, waiting for you to open the door and invite Him into your life. (See Revelation 3:20.)

You can do so by sincerely praying this prayer:

Jesus, please forgive me for all my sins. I believe that You died for me. I open the door to my heart, and I invite You into my life. Please fill me with Your love and Holy Spirit, help me get to know You, and guide me in the way of truth. Amen.
