

Jesus, the Prince of Peace, will not only give you peace in your heart here and now, but when this life is over, He will bring you to His haven of rest. In the kingdom of God there will be no more sorrow, oppression, war, poverty, pain, sickness, suffering, or death, but only peace and plenty for all.

If you have not yet personally received Jesus' gift of eternal salvation, you can do so now by praying the following prayer:

Dear Jesus, I invite You into my heart as my Lord and Savior. Please forgive me for my sins, and fill me with Your Holy Spirit. Guide me in the way of truth, and help me to love You and love others and to live by the words in Your book, the Bible. Amen.

THE PRINCE OF PEACE

Event after event has left the world questioning, “Why all the pain and strife? Why wars, disease, and natural disasters? Why troubles and sorrows?” People are searching for a ray of hope.

Two thousand years ago, over the town of Bethlehem, a new star shone and an angel of God proclaimed to a group of shepherds, “Behold, I bring you good tidings of great joy which will be to all people. For there is born to you this day in the city of David a Savior, who is Christ the Lord” (Luke 2:10–11).

On that special night, God gave us the greatest gift anyone could give—His Son, Jesus. Though Jesus came into the world as a tiny baby, He taught us how to love God and each other. When Jesus died for us, He gave us the greatest gift of all—the promise of eternal life in heaven when our time on Earth is done.

Jesus wants to bring His peace to the hearts of all people everywhere. He sees the misery, grief, and pain of the heavyhearted. He sees the weak and the weary. He sees those who struggle with fear—fear of the past, and fear of the future. He sees the persecuted and war-torn, those who have been robbed of hope and a chance to live in peace.

He hears our cries and reaches out to us in love. If you will reach out your hand to Him now, He will lead you through the darkness and into the light. Jesus wants to be with you always, through every disappointment and hardship. He wants to protect you from harm. He wants to be a light when darkness surrounds you.

Even when there is trouble on every side, you won’t need to worry or fear. If you have His love in your heart, no matter what happens, He will take care of you. No matter how dark the night, His light will shine for you.

Jesus will be your closest and dearest friend. You will be able to talk to Him anywhere, anytime, and He will speak to your heart and guide you through the storms of life.
